

CHENDO

chendo has been playing stringed instruments for more than 30 years and has studied Western and Indian classical music.

He began playing ambient music as a resident musician in the White Robe Band in the Osho Commune International in Pune, India. He has performed all over the world and especially throughout the Bay Area and London.

His most recent project, Sonic Valium, brought the wide variety of his talents to one live fusion of instruments and electronics.

chendo has been DJing house, chillout, DnB since the early 2000s.

He's played at clubs and festivals worldwide including Burning Man and as a SecretCinema resident in London.

chendo is good to go for live meditation, yoga, and wedding gigs, and DJing all kinds of events.
